

ANNE-SOPHIE PRESTAIL

A NEW GENERATION AT THE BAR HEMINGWAY

Paris, May 25th, 2023

On the occasion of his retirement, the Ritz Paris warmly thanks Colin Field for his contribution to the reputation and eminence of the Bar Hemingway around the world for 29 years.

Anne-Sophie Prestail, a brilliant and creative bartender renowned and appreciated by hotel guests and Parisians alike, will succeed him starting on June 1st, 2023.

Since her arrival at the Bar Hemingway in 2006, Anne-Sophie Prestail has worked hand in hand with Colin Field, who quickly discerned the young bartender's talent and potential. Over the years, he transmitted to her his expertise and savoir-faire in mixology, not to mention the incredible stories and anecdotes that make the Bar Hemingway so special.

That legacy will be enriched over time by the character of a passionate and highly skilled technician. Anne-Sophie Prestail and her team of mixologists are delighted to carry the torch and assure the future of this emblematic venue. The Bar Hemingway's legendary cocktails will still be on the menu, along with a few new flights of fancy to accompany her personal signature.

Brimming with energy and a genuine determination to make the most of its heritage, Anne-Sophie Prestail assumes the reins of the legendary Bar Hemingway, perpetuating the spirit of a place that is unique in the world.

Press contacts

LAURA DAVIDSON PUBLIC RELATIONS

Claire Skinner – claire@ldpr.com