

L'OR BLEU

For the holiday season, the Ritz Paris draws inspiration from Surrealism, which this year celebrates its centenary. Because an audacious movement deserves an audacious creation, the Ritz Bar presents l'Or Bleu, an original cocktail composed by Head Barman Romain de Courcy.

Inspired by the famous poem by Surrealist pioneer Paul Éluard, this cocktail evokes the fascinating paradox of the senses and of color. Inspired by the author's famous line "the Earth is blue like an orange," l'Or Bleu plays subtly with flavors and extends an original, whimsical invitation to dream.

This new creation elevates lavender, which is also known as "blue gold from Provence" and is prized for its power to soothe. Paired with vodka, rosemary and delicious notes of bergamot, this fresh and aromatic composition reveals a balance that is pleasant with unexpected overtones.

Atasting adventure created in the spirit of the festive season, only at the Ritz Bar.
